“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. Despite this difficult time, you may be comforted by the Christian hope of the resurrection. Jesus promised at John 5:28, 29: "Do not marvel at this but the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Yes we have a solid hope of embracing our loved ones who have passed away again.

“ We the March Family and Marshall-March Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
