“ I was so deeply saddened to hear of the passing of my classmate and friend Betty. Had not seen her since the class reunion two years ago and she was so happy to be there and share so many memories. Always such a sweet and gentle soul. My paryers and thoughts are with the family. May she rest in peace in God's eternal kingdom.

“ I wish to extend my condolences to the family of Ms Betty Jones. The death of a love one can be truly devastating. No doubt you have great memories of your mother, wife, sister and friend. Comfort can be found from God's inspired word the bible. One such scripture is Acts 24:15. I have personally benefited from these words as well as Job 14:13-15. May you find comfort during this difficult time.
