“ Everytime I needed a shoulder you were there, when I needed protection you were there. Any time I needed words of encouragement I didn't have to look far you were always there for me grandma. You were my first best friend the longest friendship I had with you the purest most honest relationship I could ask for there was never any judgement just honest and encouragement from you. Always quick with a come back or a saying that makes you laugh or say what? It's so difficult without you but I know you wouldn't want me sad forever.
