“ My darling Aunt Beulah. The older you got, the more you resembled my Grandmother Isabelle Lee. I know she and Poppa were there waiting for you as well as Grandma Annie Neal and Aunt Willa Bell. I'm sure James, Jerry and James were there too upon your arrival. I loved the way you always answered the phone sounding like Marilyn Monroe. Your hats were always the talk of the town no matter where you went. I will never forget that year at the family reunion when you strutted down the aisle of Piney Grove in Clarkton, North Carolina with that beautiful hat with mirrors all around it. Thank you for always being kind, loving and caring to us as children (even though we didn't like it that you called where we lived "the country". You would never leave our home after a visit without taking something home from the country, even if it were nothing more than a can of pork and beans. You will always live in our hearts and every time someone calls my name, I'll think of you since it was you who named me. Love you Aunt Beulah, rest in peace.

P.S -- I made your cake "Happy Birthday in Heaven"
