“ To Beverley's Family,

I remember Bev' face light up "every" time she spoke of her children, grandnieces, grandchildren, her gorgeous mom and of course her loveable pets. One conversation in particular I remember was Bev speaking of her mom's hairstyle (the famous bun) and how lady like her mom is. She'd laugh that unforgettable laugh as she spoke. Bev loved her family and was always proud and happy to share pictures and stories to whom ever would listen. Bev' presence is missed.

A few years ago I joined Bev for a Sunday service at Union Bethel. Bev was very involved in her church and at the time, the "share food program" too. She even gave me a ride home once or twice.

May God' word give you comfort today, tomorrow and for the years to come. May the memories from yesterday bring you joy and laughter.

God Bless & much luv~

Anyone who knew Aunt Beverley, or myself KNEW that she was everything to me! Despite anything that we ever went through I'd go to war for her any day. She took a piece of my heart when she left this earth! Lord knows she did! Cherish your loved ones because tomorrow can be taken from any one of us! I just wish I could get her back! I love you Aunt Beverley always and forever! Thank you so much for taking a chance when you took me in to your home, I know it wasn't always easy but you loved me like I loved and still love you! Sleep in peace QUEEN! Love always Nilajaye

“ Bev Minor was a woman with a mission, and I am lucky to have learned the everything I did in the short time we worked together. Bev had a huge impact on the world and on those around her, but never once did I hear Bev speak about her career or herself as the key to all that kept IMO operational. Bev's work came from her passion for helping others and keeping the office on track, in doing so Bev left this world and our little office a better place for all of us. You will be missed!

“ To Beverley's Family, I pray that the peace of the Lord rest upon you during this tough time and that you find comfort in your memories of her. I remember our advice sessions (girl talks) as we walked over to the Union Station Parking garage in the evenings. Beverley always had a discrete manner about her, but would show her emotions thru her eyes as they would widen (with raised brows) to show emphasis, then we would laugh and shake our heads in agreement. I am going to miss her as I know you will. May God bless you all in miraculous ways.

“ I will forever love Beverley. We were more than co-workers, we were good friends. We shared so many talks about our families and I will always remember her sharing with me the love she had for her sister, Terrie. Beverley used to tell me that we were alike in so many ways, right down to our names and that I always reminded her of her. My heart is so heavy, but I truly know I will meet Beverley again in the air someday. May our heavenly father comfort her family in the days ahead. With much Love, T.
