“ Kim,

When we met I believe Brandon was about 6 or 7 and Brian was right behind him. Even back then when we were in our 20's you were such a devoted mother .. doing whatever you needed to do to take care of "the boys". As I watched Brandon grow up your love, devotion, and commitment never waivered even when he started to "smell himself". I can't begin to imagine how heavy your heart is and the pain you feel. Pray for peace and in HIS time it will come. If there is ANYTHING I can do please don't hesitate to ask.

Love,

“ Kim and Brother & Sister Lewis:

We have watched the boys grow over the years and know this is heartbreaking. We have the resurrection hope, but we still groan in spirit like Jesus did with Lazarus. May the holy spirit support you and carry you throughout this difficult time. We know the truth, but it does not eliminate the pain. Draw close to Jehovah and your loving Christian family. We are almost at the finish line.###imported-begin##Katina Wilson##imported-end##

“ Greetings Lewis Family,

Kim, my heart goes out to you and your family. I am here for you always and of course for your sons as well. You and I have a lifetime of friendship and Brandon was and still is my first baby boy and godson. I'm going to miss catching up with him as we did from time to time. He is forever engrained in my memory and my heart.

Love you!

“ You and your family have my deepest condolences and express comfort from the Resurrection hope. The resurrection of Jesus is an example of God’s victory over the works of the Devil—a token of what is to come for humans who choose God’s rule.
