

Brenda Douglas Hartley

July 23, 1942 - October 28, 2020

Brenda Celina Douglas Hartley, affectionately known as “Nana,” passed away on October 28, 2020 at the age of 78. She was born at Providence Hospital on July 23, 1942 in Washington D.C.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Daniel Douglas and Thelma Douglas and her three siblings Daniel Douglas, Jr, Illana Banks, and Eric Douglas. She also had two grandchildren Desmond Greenfield and Roland Butler, Jr. who predeceased her in 2000 and 1991.

As a native Washingtonian, Brenda graduated from OIC and later completed skilled trades in mechanical, transportation and insurance. She spent most of her career in transportation and loved helping children and young adults with disabilities. She retired as a school bus driver from Zenas Child Development Center. She was also baptized at an early age, and received the Lord as her savior at Salem Baptist Church in Washington, D.C.

Brenda’s true passion was helping others. She was always willing to open her home to help the less fortunate. She was a Nana to our family and friends, our children, grandchildren and great-grand-children. One of her greatest enjoyments was her unconditional love and support to our family and friends.

She will truly be missed. She will forever be in our hearts and we are all better for having her love, support, compassion and understanding in our lives.

She is survived by her son, Kirkland Hartley and her two daughters, Michelle Hartley and Monique Pace. She is also survived by her grandchildren, Devon Greenfield, Jaquan Butler, Javon Butler, Joseph and Justin Pace; two great-grandchildren Devon Greenfield, Jr and Justin Sampson; two godchildren LaCre "Shimmy" Hamlet, Sharray Prince and a host of nieces and nephews.

She also leaves behind a special friend and sister-in-law, Janice Douglas and very dear friend Shirley Prince.

This is so long for now, but we will keep you alive in our hearts. You will be greatly missed.

Nana -- take your rest. We will see you in the morning.
