“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. During this difficult time may the promise at Revelation 21:4 comfort the family and friends: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more. Neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ After being a very close friend of Brenda's mom "Shirley" and family over the past forty plus years, I have several favorite memories of Brenda. To name a few is very hard at this time but for the sake of her mom, I want her to know I thank God first and her for the life of Brenda and the memories we were able to share with her. Brenda was a very special child as you know from her success at becoming one of God's chosen angel to look over his sheep. As adults she as a child use to always remind us of things we should and should not do. I remember a time her mother and I were laughing very hard about something and she just looked at us and said 'Yall so crazy", which made us laugh even more after coming from a small child. One of the other memories I will cherish is the time she came to New York to preach a word at a church and I took my mom who was battling a debilitating known as" ALZHEIMERS" at that time, which made her very confused and caused her to act out some time. Brenda ministered to my mom and calmed her down. Today is the anniversary of my mom's transition to eternal life twelve years ago. I pray the memories we shared will always give my friend "Shirley, family and friends, whom Our lord and savior allowed us to share, will give strength when you feel none is there. I also pray God will continue to keep you and never let go and carry you when you feel no one is there. Love you always Brenda.
