He attended Prince George's County Public Schools and then earned a master's degree in biblical studies from Lancaster Bible College. Brian joined New Chapel Baptist Church in Capitol Heights, Maryland, at an early age, was baptized, and accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior under the leadership of Rev. William Hill, Pastor Emeritus. He was a member of several choirs and enjoyed singing and blessing others via music. He was a huge fan of the Baltimore Ravens and the Commanders. When the NFL season ended, he watched the newest soccer, baseball, basketball, and wrestling matches on the television. “ Uncle Curly, Aunt Ellie, Simone, and the rest of our family: My heart has been so heavy and so broken since we lost our precious Brian. This has hit me really hard. I was so sure he was doing well. I feel he was tired and ready to go and be with the Lord. He fought hard as he dealt with his trials and tribulations. Many of us gained strength in listening to him talk so positive. He was faithful in everything he did. He was very family-oriented. He loved being a husband, a son, a sibling, a deacon, and the list goes on and on. His faith was so very strong. He had definitely helped alot of people - giving advice, spreading the gospel, showing love for all of us and for many others. He knew the power of prayer and he loved and kept his trust in God. Brian has definitely left a legacy here and for this, we are grateful. We know he is at peace now as he rejoices with God, the angels, and all the ones who went to be with the Lord before him. He is happy and content as he walks the streets of gold. We love you Brian. You will never be forgotten because you will live in our hearts forever. Rest in peace.

“ I’m going to miss those powerful phone calls with Brian during his dialysis. When I would call, Brian would say, “I’ve got nothing but time for the next few hours.” No matter what was going on in his life, he always had something positive and encouraging to say. Somehow making me feel better, when I called him to make him feel better.
I’m so thankful to have had Brian — and Simone — in my life over these past few years.
Brian’s spirit will live on in all of us who were lucky enough to know him.

I am so heartbroken about the passing of my cousin Brian. His faith was strong and he fought a good fight with all the medical issues as well as the trials and tribulations that he had to endure. He was always pleasant, positive, and always encouraging us. His love for God, his wife, his family, and his friends was so strong. He spreaded the gospel and helped many people along the way. He did so many positive things during his lifetime. I love you Brian and I'll never forget you because you'll live in my heart forever. Rest in peace Brian as you rejoice with God, the angels, and all the ones who went to be with the Lord before you.
