“ To the McCall Family:

I extend my deepest sympathy to you all in the loss of your loved one. Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. Love to all of you.....##imported-begin##Joyce Foster-Lilly##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy for the family. May the promises in the Holy Scriptures brings comfort to you. It promises one day soon, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore” -Revelation chapter 21 verses 3,4. We yearn for the day to see our dear loved ones again. Jesus promises, “the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out “- John chapter 5 verses 28,29.##imported-begin##Rena##imported-end##

“ Dear Leonard and Katie,

I was so very sorry to hear the passing of your dear son. My heart felt sad because no parent expects their child to proceed them in death. I'm also sorry I was not able to attend the services.

Just know that continued prayers are being said frequently on your behalf for our Father to heal your hurting heart. Jesus came to "bind up the brokenhearted" and I know you know He will in due time. Our comfort and strength is in the name of JEHOVA SHALOM.

Sincerely,

Mary Louis' sister##imported-begin##mary mattox##imported-end##

“ My deepest sorrow and sympathy go to the McCall family. I had the pleasure of working with Brian and consider him a co-worker and friend. Tori, be strong knowing Brian has gone to heaven. When my mother passed she had left a note not to grieve for her, because she had gone to a better place. My wife also sends her love as she had met Brian on several occasions. Take care and may God be with you during these difficult times.##imported-begin##John Presti##imported-end##

“ Tori, Danielle and Jermel, as you honor your husband and father - may the blessing of memories lighten your heart when you think of the time you all shared as a family. May the blessing of hope that a better world waits bring a smile for each tear that you cry... may the blessing of peace gently carry you through now, as you tell Brian good-bye. Please always remember that when each of us are born our stories are already written. Brian was a beautiful person. Praying your strength in the Lord.
