“Dear Brigette, I still can't believe you're gone. You were one of my cousin Charrise's (R.I.P.) closest friends. I remember all the get togethers our families used to share. You were always kind, funny and generous. I hope you and Charrise are rejoicing in Heaven, may God Bless 🤍🙏🕊️

“ To my sister.

It was just me and you and now the Lord has called you home. My sister is not here anymore. My heart is broken but I know that you are in a better place. We had so many memories that only we could know. We talked everyday and now there are no more calls, but the memories will never leave my heart. Brigette I LOVE YOU VERY MUCH and will miss you dearly. We have been through some ups and downs in our life but our ups brought us what we are today. I say that I have been always proud of you. No matter what road block you faced you always overcame it. You raised 4 kids and always gave them the tools to succeed. You never turned away anyone in need. I could never be mad at you, only upset, but that only last until we finished our conversation. You asked, and I was there. You might have received a lecture but in the long run I broke down. I use to tell you that it was just me and you now, life is short, live you life, enjoy your grandkids. She'll say "You are right Rob my kids are grown and can take care of themselves", it's my grandkids time. Brigette I am the last of the Mohicans. RIP Sis you will always have a space in my heart. Love you, Your Big Brother Rob
