

Buck Lee Chisenhall

August 20, 1956 - July 14, 2009

Buck Lee Chisenhall 52, left this world July 14, 2009.

Buck was a loving son, brother, husband, father, and grandfather. He was born and lived most of his life in Raleigh, North Carolina and graduated from Enloe Senior High School there. He served in the United States Marine Corps. He worked beside his mother for many years at Carolina Surgical of Raleigh. He graduated with high honors from the NCSU Ag Institute with 2 associate degrees. He operated his own landscaping business and most recently worked for Grubbs Pharmacy, Washington, DC.

He enjoyed photography and listening to podcasts on his Blackberry. The joy of his life was his 3 grandchildren: Quinn of Valley Stream, NY, and Solana and Adrianna of Fayetteville, NC. He is survived by his wife, Robin Imperial of Washington, DC, son Leon Imperial of Valley Stream, NY, son Bryan Chisenhall of Lake Village, AR, daughter Kelly Lane of Fayetteville, NC, mother Mittie Chisenhall of Beaufort, NC, brother Ron Chisenhall of Beaufort, NC, sister Lynda Laughinghouse of Smithfield, NC, and sister Debra Chisenhall of Cedar Crest, NM.

Flowers may be sent to the funeral home or in lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the NCSU Agricultural Institute 919-515-3248 or by E-mail at Ag_Institute@ncsu.edu.

“ *Dear Robin and Family,
I am so sad to hear about Buck and wish I had seen him one more time. We all are sharing our memories of how he would talk and joke with us when he came to the library to pick you up. He was so warm and devoted to his family and had a playful sense of humor that I looked forward to when he would come through the door. Thinking of you and your family.
