Remembering Beulah

On Saturday, September 22, Beulah R. Proctor was called home to be with the Lord at a nursing home in Harrisburg, PA.

Beulah was the third daughter of the late Edmund and Marie Lilly. She was born on October 8, 1927 in Washington, DC where she was educated. She was married to the late Irvin Proctor and from this union, three sons were born: Irving, Eric and Arron.

She leaves to mourn her passing, son, Arron Proctor; two daughters-in-law, Terri Proctor and Jacqueline Proctor; ten grandchildren, eight great grandchildren, three sisters, Fredricka Wilson, Gladys Scott and Joyce Mullins; brother, Tyrone Edwards; an aunt, Viola Williams; two sisters-in-law, Helen Lilly and Mary Edwards, brother-in-law, Earl Payne, and a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives and friends.

Beulah, we all love and miss your loving smile. WE will all meet someday on the other side.

Our Love for You

Author Unknown

There are things we cannot measure,

Like the depths of waves and sea

And the heights of stars in heaven

And the joy you brought to us...

Like eternity's long endlessness

And the sunset's golden hue,

There is no way to measure

The love we have for you.

Lovingly submitted by

The family wishes to extend sincere thanks and appreciation for your compassion, sympathy and kindness shown during our time of bereavement.

May God bless each and every one of you.

My Confiding Ear

When I thought my heart could beat no more

You opened the gates to a heavenly door.

With my desire for excellence, and promise being near

You were my confiding ear.

With no signs of relief from life's cold tranquil rain

I confide to your ear to ease the pain.

Serenaded with your love from the skies above

I passionately shed a tear.

No longer of fear

but from the thought of my confiding ear.
