“ We all enjoyed Cameron's kind, pleasant and polite manner as a customer and friend to Roadhouse Oldies Records Shop of Silver Spring.

I never had a Father's Day or Birthday go by without a card from Cameron since I knew him.

I know he's rooting for his teams to this day in Heaven thanx, Cameron; You'll be greatly missed.

“ I am sorry to hear of Cameron's passing. We worked together for several months at ACS where he showed me the robes and helped me get an offer from the company. He would always correct me when I said Jewels Santana we both liked that guy.: I am sorry I could not be there in person to express my respect for your loved one.

Sincerely,

“ My friend I will miss you so much. You were and still is a joy in my life. I will never forget you. My first friend in DC. Thank you for running around with a lady that was older than your mother. Showing me the nice parts of DC and for they hours of talking on the phone. You have been a blessing not only to me but for almost anyone who has met you.##imported-begin##Mrs. Dale Stewart##imported-end##

“ *Trust in the Lord with all thine heart, and lean not unto thine own understanding
In all thy ways acknowledge Him. He shall direct thy paths. Proverb 3:5,6*

*I known Cameron for four beautiful years. When no one made me feel like a person I could count on him my friend. I still hear him saying Hey Armita. I just was talking to him via email on that Sunday. We use to email each other every day. I called him my email buddy. I will miss him here. But, Cameron you will ALWAYS, ALWAYS be in MY HEART. I thank your family for bringing up such a fine young man. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Amen

“ I've never met a finer human being than Cameron Williams. I was honored to tutor him in math when he was a youngster but he taught ME everything I could ever hope to learn about being a friend. With his encyclopedic knowledge of music and sports, I always hoped he'd be famous as a DJ or sportscaster, but not as a victim of last week's tragedy. He will live on in my heart and memory forever. What a world-class sense of humor he gave me so many wacky Elvis gifts!, marvelous moral character and boundless kindness he had never missed a birthday and his Christmas card was always the first to arrive, along with that winning smile and vast charm, plus a keen understanding of human nature, a shining goodness and a sense of fun -- what an amazing soul. I will miss you, Ty, and will always tell everyone about you. Knowing you was a tremendous gift that I will always cherish. My heart goes out to your family, whom I hold in my heart.##imported-begin##Melanie Modlin##imported-end##

“ Cameron was a wonderful person. God placed him in my life exactly when I needed him. His humbleness; his smile; his laughter will be missed greatly by me. To his family: I pray that you find comfort and peace in God's love. I will continue to lift your family up in prayer. Crystal Dayton, Ohio##imported-begin##Crystal Hagens##imported-end##
