

Cariann DeNise Hithon

October 5, 1995 - October 8, 2017

On October 5, 1995 Cariann Denise Hithon was born to Cary Jeffery Hithon and Sherry Ann Hithon in San Diego, California.

Our beloved, Cariann transitioned to be in the presence of her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on October 8, 2017. On that day the world lost a budding star because in her short life Cariann left a lasting legacy.

She attended private school all her life and certainly made her mark in each of them. She graduated from St. John's College High School in Washington, DC. She was a member of the National Honor Society and French Honor Society. She was awarded a full academic scholarship to Hampton University. Throughout her high school and college years, she continually demonstrated her leadership abilities. She was a member of Youth Bowie Leadership and was a part of the University of California Summer Institute for Emerging Managers and Leaders. She also co-founded the first Hampton Model United Nations Team. She was studying to become a defense attorney to assist the underrepresented. To attain this, she spent two and a half years at Hampton University and then transferred to Temple University to pursue her bachelor's degree in political science.

She enjoyed life as much as anyone. Her favorite pastime was shopping, traveling, and spending time with family and friends. She loved purchasing cosmetics and she enjoyed doing her and other's makeup.

She will always be remembered for her steadfast desire to make a difference, to challenge the status quo, and to encourage others to enjoy life. She leaves behind her parents, godfather Kenneth Trass, godmother Erlene Frances, sister Rachel, and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins and friends.
