“ I remember Carlton from family reunions, he was always so friendly. He would come over and take pics and crack jokes like we'd all seen one another the day before. He was kind to the little cousins he'd just met and loving to those of us he remembered from the last reunion. We'd always say "let's all get together when we get back home" but, life..... May the Lord God cover and keep the family, friends and loved ones; may He bring comfort and peace to you all.

“ I remember seeing Carlton around the Metropolitan Police Department likely details or court. I'm very hurt he is no longer with us physically. I did not know him personally however when you are within the same police department we consider each other family and would speak simply by face recognition. I'm praying for the family and friends along with co workers. You will be missed brother.
