

Mrs. Carol Virginia Gable Gillis

November 6, 1938 - March 17, 2011

Carol Virginia Gable Gillis, beloved daughter, teacher, wife, mother, and grandmother, died peacefully at her home on March 17, 2011, after a long illness. She was the beloved wife of Richard Gillis, devoted mother of Peter, mother-in-law of Bobbe, cherished grandmother of Mandy and Stanley, loving sister of James B. Gable, sister-in-law of Paula Gable, and aunt of David and Paul Gable.

She was born in Indianapolis, IN, and grew up in the Edwin Gable family. In 1956, she graduated from Shortridge High School. She was a graduate of Miami University in Oxford, OH, where she served as Chaplain for her Sorority, Kappa Alpha Theta, and met her husband. They married in 1960. She was a teacher in Rochester, NY and Montreal, Quebec, before moving to Washington, D.C., where she was a substitute teacher and volunteer in area schools.

She loved children and was nurturing and caring in her mothering and teaching. She had a gentle goodness that transformed those she loved. She knew what true joy was and how to create it for those she loved. She loved music and carried a song in her heart most of the time. She was always, and will be "the One True Thing."

There will be a memorial service Wednesday, April 6, 11 a.m. at First -

Meridian Heights Presbyterian Church, 4701 Central Avenue, Indianapolis, IN.
In lieu of flowers, we ask that contributions be made in her honor to the Doris

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. During this time, may family and friends be comforted by the promise found at Revelation 21:4: And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”
