

Carol Jean Jackson

February 27, 1943 - February 15, 2014

God took Carol Jean Jackson from labor to reward on February 15, 2014 at Washington Hospital, Washington, D.C.

She is the only child born on February 27, 1943 to Blanche Davis (Jackson) in Brooklyn, New York. Following her mother's death when Carol was young, she moved to Gloucester, Virginia and was reared by her grandmother, Senie Davis Howard.

After graduating in 1960 from Thomas C. Walker High School, Gloucester, Virginia, Carol relocated to Washington, D.C. to further her education through enrollment at Howard University.

Carol was employed as an accountant by the State Department following her educational pursuits. Her career led to her eventual retirement. She also has served as a trustee at Shiloh Baptist Church in Washington, D.C.

She leaves to cherish her memory three loving cousins, Silvester Whitfield (Mary), Vivian Davis Jackson, and Clarence Davis (Brenda), as well as a host of extended family members and friends. Her friendship with Brenda Corey was valued.

God saw you were getting weary, so he did what he thought best.

He came and stood beside you and whispered, "Come and rest"

You bade no one a last farewell, not even a good-bye.

You were gone before we knew it, and only

God knows why...

Sorrowfully submitted,
The Family
