“ Our sincerest sympathies and condolences to Carolyn's family, friends, and co-workers from the leadership, members, and staff of the American Jail Association. Now grant, O Lord, to your handmaid, Carolyn Ann, peace, light, and joy in a place where there is no pain, sorrow, nor mourning. May her memory be eternal.

American Jail Association - September 22, 2014 at 09:51 AM

“ I'm so sorry to read of your loss. I can't imagine the pain that you feel at this time. May the God of comfort be with you at this time and in times to come. He promises the hope of seeing our dead loved ones again. That promise is at John 5:28,29 and also Rev. 21:3,4.

“ My prayers and sympathy goes out to the entire Cross family. I had only known Carolyn for a few years, but those few years were good years when ever I was in her company. I saw her about 3 weeks ago and we had a very wonderful time, not knowing that it would be the last time that I would see. She was a very sweet and caring person. To the family some days are going to be harder than other, to get through, but just hold on to God unchanging hand, he will lead you and guide you on the right path, for comfort. He will not leave you or forsake you, the Lord will provide you the strength to get through. weeping may endureth at night, but joy will come in the morning. I will be praying for your family in the days to come, to give you strength to carry on. Just take one day at a time. John 14 and the book of Psalms have quite a few verse that should help to comfort you through this difficult time. May God bless you all.
