

Carrie M. Hargrove

May 1, 1937 - April 22, 2020

Celebration of Life

Deaconess Carrie Mae Hargrove

God called his beloved child, Carrie Mae Hargrove to her heavenly home on Wednesday, April 22, 2020 at 9:16 p.m., following an extended illness.

Carrie was born on May 1, 1937 in McCormick, South Carolina. She was the first of four children born to the late George Taggart, Sr. and Annie Mae Taggart (predeceased). She was raised in the District of Columbia and educated at Margaret Murray Washington Vocational High School. She became a License Practical Nurse and worked and retired as a proud and public servant at D.C. General Hospital in 1994.

Carrie was a woman of faith who truly loved the Lord. Carrie accepted Christ at an early age and became Member of Mt. Olive Baptist Church in Washington, DC. She relocated to Fayetteville, North Carolina where she joined Falling Run Missionary Baptist Church then later joined Mount Calvary Baptist Church. She was a faithful and dedicated member until she departed from this life.

She was an avid cook/baker like her mother and sister and frequently made delicious baked spaghetti, peach cobbler, bread pudding, sweet potato pie, cakes and her all time favorite fresh fried fish not only for her family at home but also for all of her friends. She had a green thumb and enjoyed working in her flower garden and just loved her purple passion flowers that she always shared with her friends and family. She took great pride in her family and was a caregiver in her retirement. She always liked to keep her nails, hair, and clothes neat and tidy along with her house. She will truly be missed.

Carrie and Deacon John Hargrove, Jr. (predeceased) were happily married on September 4, 1965. They were blessed with two loving and devoted children, Paul Lynn Hargrove, Sr. (predeceased) and Janice Lynne Hargrove. They were later blessed with three grandchildren, Parris M. E. Hargrove, Pauleisha A. Hargrove and Paul Hargrove, II (Janet); four great grandchildren Sevin Hargrove, Sevia Hargrove, Paul Hargrove, III, and Savannah Hargrove, along with one daughter-in-law, Starlette Hargrove and one future son-in-law Steven E. Payne.

Along with her immediate family, Carrie is survived by one sister; Ethel Elaine Thomas. She had another sister Mattie T. Arrington (predeceased), and a brother George Taggart, Jr. (predeceased); Sisters-in-law's; Maerine Taggart, Verna Mae Lilard, Brewnell Clancy, Marva Hampton (Dana), Brother-Law William Howard Hargrove, and Sammy Lee Boles. godson Fred Stamps and goddaughter Arnetta Jackson and her best friend Lessie Simmons and her favorite hair stylist; Alisa Nurchison, along with a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

In Loving Memory

God's Garden

God looked around His garden

And found an empty space

Then He looked upon the earth
And saw your lovely face
He put His arms around you,
and lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
For He only takes the best.
He saw the road was getting tough
and the hills were hard to climb, so He gently closed your weary eyes and whispered
"Peace Be Thine"

“ Sister Carrie Hargove was a kind woman of God someone who always welcomed you into her home with love. Yes she always gave you something to eat and no way could you leave her home without a purple passion flower. We were sadden to hear of your transition but God knows what's best for us. Rest in Peace and we love you. Praying for the family.

“ We are deeply saddened by the news about the death of Mrs. Hargrove. She was a wonderful neighbor and friend to all of us on Sids Mill Road and her church community. Although it has been many years since she left North Carolina we still remember her fondly and often share memories of her kindness. She wanted us to all share in her love for her purple passion plants which reminded her of her younger days, and now those plants keep her memories alive here. May God bless you and keep you in his care during this difficult time and always.

With warm and heartfelt sympathy,
Jim and Lori Hlavacek, Rex and Icelane Draughon family, Alisha Murchison, Gwen Miles, Gretta Sturgies, Deacon OManzie and Deaconess Lessie Simmons family
