“ To the Family,

On behalf of my wife Nannette and my son Andrew Gowdy, Jr I offer my condolences for the passing of Aunt Carrie. The moment I heard that she had become ill and the cause of her illness, I immediately remembered my father John Gowdy, who died in 1993 in a similar fashion. Like my father, know that Aunt Carrie is in the presence of the Lord. In the presence of the Lord, there is fullness; fullness of peace and fullness of joy. She is no longer sick, she is no longer in pain. In fact, she is up in heaven with grandma and grand dad and all of her siblings having a reunion. God bless all of you and know that God is with you and has the power to comfort you during this season.##imported-begin##Andrew Gowdy##imported-end##

“ To the Samuels Family,

May each of you find comfort in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." Psalm 34;18 He has promised to soon "swallow up death forever...and wipe the tears from all faces." Isaiah 25;8 Take care,##imported-begin##valerie thompson##imported-end##

“ To the family:I can't imagine what you are feeling but this one thing I do know... there is no sorrow that God can't comfort in the time of need. Your mother is a matriorch in her own right as well as an incredibly strong woman.She displayed love in her own loving way.There was never a doubt that she loved you. Those words may have been few in your hearing but you always knew through her tender way that she loved and cared for you dearly. Let your fond memories of her be the fuel that catapult you through this life. Make her proud through the evidence of your life. Don't let anyone rob you of your true feelings. To everything there is a season. Even a time to mourn. Aunt Carrie will truly be missed.##imported-begin##Tirzah D. Bush Wilborn##imported-end##

“ To My Mother-In-Law
When you gave birth to Rodney I wonder what you thought As tears flowed down in joy that day For the treasure God had wrought
When you looked into his eyes And held his tiny hand Did you know how THANKFUL I would be For the boy you made a man
You told me that He’s still Momma’s baby and not to let on that you said it Now that He knows, as time goes and goes,
He’ll be comforted when He dwells in it
And as I look into the eyes Of the son you raised to be A man who stands above the crowd It’s your eyes I will see Those steely eyes of strength and hope and character so rare
The eyes of love and faithfulness And the wisdom that you’ve shared
For the many selfless things you’ve done, I’m especially Grateful To Thee
That you have shared your love and life with our family.
Your Daughter-In-Law, Rosslyn Roz

“ Carrie my sister-in-law will be greatly missed. She has been like a big sister to me. She has always been one I could call on in a time of need, especially when it came to babysitting. We use to talk almost every day sometimes two or three times a day. Rest in peace sister, I will miss you but I know that you are in a better place, resting in the arms of God.
