“ To Christine's Family:

Please accept my condolences, Chris and I were high school friends, I stood w/her when she married Robert. We connected through the years, off and on and it was always w/love and happiness when we did. I regret I couldn't be there today. Chris will be greatly missed by old and new friends. May God Bless You All.

“ To the Family of Cathy,
You have my deepest condolences in the loss of your love one and she will truly be missed, but always remember the good times and always remember that time can never remove the love you hold in your hearts. Stay strong for one another, I ask that the Lord wraps his arms around each and everyone of you and keeps you strong. Cathy always had such a beautiful smile and that too you will miss but memories are a beautiful thing. With Condolences “ Dearest Leroy, I was sorry to hear of the loss of Catherine. She was a warm and kind person. I remember her laughter and friendship at Aunt Rachel's birthday party. We all enjoyed her heartfelt love for her Seniors. Catherine stopped by to visit my family after the death of my father. She offered special words of comfort. I enjoyed the trips with her group and I appreciated the fact that she looked out for Aunt Rachel. God has a new and extra special Angel in heaven. I pray that God will wrap his ever loving arms around you and your family.
