“ My most sincere condolences to the family of Mrs. Catherine Sykes. As a fellow Missionary Circle worker, Women's Ministry supporter and parishioner at Gethsemane Baptist Church, she always exemplified the fruit of the Holy Spirit with a touch of humor that made her one of my favorite big sisters-in-Christ. Always well-dressed, poised and elegant, she will be well remembered for her legacy of love and service. I am so sorry that the covid-19 outbreak kept us from properly celebrating her on her 90th birthday. I didn't see her much after that, but will always cherish the time I spent in her presence. Another Proverbs 31 woman has earned her crown!
