“ Mom it's been nearly eight years since I've seen or talked to you. So much has changed for me and I wish you were here to share life's experiences with Omar and I. I wanted to take this time to acknowledge you. There is not a day that goes by that I don't think about you. I will always love and thank God for providing the best Mom he could give a person. Love you always!! Tish

“Cathey's radiant smile and glowing disposition were her trademarks. Her greetings to you were benevolent, warm and sincere. Her heart radiated her "realness and honesty" that she exhibited to each and everyone - no matter their status in life. Whenever I would see her at The National Archives and Records Administration Building I, she would always greet me with a courteous and rewarding, "Hello, how are you..". She knew how to make you feel important in a fashion that was not pretentious and patronizing, but down-to-earth, playful, relaxing and "all-Catheys".

To the family, friends, relations, and associates of Ms. Cathey LaVern Lomax, do not feel discouraged, disheartened, or wondering why she had to leave us so, so early/soon, but rather let us all celebrate the fact that our Lord, the Christ, allowed us to meet such a fine and wonderful person such as Sister Cathey L. Lomax, while she was still with us in our earthly abodes - our human selves.

Peace be you - always.

“ My friend! You were a beautiful person, INSIDE AND OUT. Your struggle is over, your at peace, now. God said 'You have suffered enough, come home My child'. So he dipatched an angel, to make a special trip, just for you and placed you in the boosom of Abraham and where you are at rest. You never knew how many people you touched at NARA, staff, contractors and researchers alike. We miss you so very much by all, but especially me.##imported-begin##DANA LIGGINS##imported-end##

“ May you rest in peace now Cathy. You have suffered so long, while never complaining. You stood strong even when you were in pain. You will be missed by so many people, and you've affected so many people lives, it's gonna be hard being here without you. Now I know you are at peace without any pain. Tell all the angels in heaven to look out for us down here on earth, because we need it. I want to say so much, but there is not enough room on this page, and not enough hours in a day. I'll miss you. :###imported-begin###Donna Larker###imported-end###

“ With Love and Sympathy to the Family.
Cathy was always a pleasant, smiling, and hard worker here at NARA. Whenever I saw her she had an easy smile and good word. I personally saw her turn an aggressive and rude person around with her spirit filled demeanor. I gave her a hug right there and said, "God Bless You. You are Wonderful."###imported-begin###Debrah Williams Boone###imported-end###
