“ Donna, words could never express my sincere condolences for you at this time. So I won't begin to try. Please find strength in your faith and know that we are all on borrowed time and you will see MOM again as we all rejoice in heaven. Know that Life is not about how many breaths you take, but remembering the moments that took your breath away. A MOM is truly a treasured commodity. She is now your angel. Love always, Pat G###imported-begin###Pat Griffin###imported-end##
