“ I am very sorry to hear Charles passing. I got to know Charles when he worked in the Alban Towers where I lived as a security personal more than a decade ago. Charles was very warm and friendly, we became friends instantly. We chatted every weekend when he was on duty. He gave me ride to the garage where I had my car fixed. I brought him sometimes homemade Chinese food. We kept in touch long after we both left the building, He was very kind and comforting to me when my husband past away several years ago. Charles had such big smile reflected well in the picture in Washington Post, and distinguished voice, which I can never forget. Though we haven't talked in the last few years, he was always in my thought. When Sharon called me about the bad news, I realized how much I missed him and those old, good days. He will always be in my memory.

Dear Charles, rest in peace.

To all family members, please accept my deepest sympathy, and be well.

“ To the family of Charles Brown CHARLIE

Death has freed him from all life's sins and Heaven's doors now swing outward, bringing long desire release. As your father wings toward GOD and Peace, may the Lord sense the families needs and hold you very close indeed.

Charlie will be surely missed, but I know I will be able to get a slab of ribs, when I get to the Pearly Gates###imported-begin##Derek & Ismay Bolding###imported-end##
