“ *Jim and I were saddened to learn of the passing of Charlie. While living in the Washington, D.C. area, we can recall many happy times spent with Charlie at the various functions held at the Touchdown Club of Washington. Whether it was drinks in the bar or formal night at the annual dinner, we always enjoyed Charlie's company, sense of humor and wonderful personality. God Bless. “ Dear Lynn & family,

I'm sorry to read about the loss of your father. Sue and I lost our dad in January this year; he was a month shy of 80. I read the announcement about your dad in the paper this morning and wanted to send you our warmest condolences.

“ I worked with Charlie on any number of projects while he was with the Government and after. He was a constant bright spot and the most enthusiastic man I ever knew. Nothing ever dulled his personality.
