“ It seems like yesterday that you would come over everyday and chill or we'd stay up all hours of the night talking on the phone. The other day I was sitting on my porch and it was like I could still see you walking up the street and hear your voice. I know that we hadn't talked in a while but just knowing that there is no possible way for me to ever see you on this earth hurts me so much. I know your home now, safe in the Kingdom of Heaven stress and strife free! Until we meet again...

“ Tay I have known you for a couple of years now. It was just week before last when you were walking out of my building and gave me a hug. We talked and encouraged each other for that short time, who would have known or ever thought this was coming. You were loved by many. You greatly impacted so many lives. To the Harrison family, just know that god has a plan and he's got it all under control. Much love.
