“ Dear Tyra & Tyree,
I am so very sorry about your father. May all the wonderful memories you have of him sustain you and live in your hearts forever. My fondest memories of Lenny were the times we all played Spades at Chummy's House. He had a great sense of humor and always made us laugh.

“ Wishing you strength for the tough day's Comfort in the quiet days and assurance that every day you're being thought of and prayed for

It is so little we can do to help you through this difficult time but we hope these words somehow let you know our heartfelt thoughts of sympathy are with you.now.
