“ The employees of IHOP in Wheaton MD wish to express our sorrow at the passing of Charles Heathman. Mr. Heathman was more than just a customer. He was a great friend. His cheery disposition always uplifted our crew. He and Roberta came great distance to eat at our restaurant, bypassing others on the way. We'd all laugh as he would take out a stack of coupons and then want to share them with everyone in the store. In fact, it took us awhile to learn his name; he was referred to as "The Coupon Man". We will miss his smile and kind words. Our thoughts and prayers go out to his family and loved ones.
