“ Father Chuck and Family,

We only met your dad once, but we will never forget how cheerful & energetic he was. It was such a treat to see him play the saxophone when Fr. Chuck was ordained. We know he was very proud of his son becoming a priest. May God bless all of you with his joy and hope - knowing you will join Charles one day for eternity in heaven.

Love and prayers,

“ Mr. Wood was the first dog walker I met after adopting my dog, Buddy. Mr. Wood and Advent greeted us warmly from across the street and I've looked forward to seeing them on our outings ever since. I will miss seeing his smiling face as he walked down the street or spoke of playing with the jazz ensemble, and I am truly sorry for your loss. May God comfort and keep you.##imported-begin##Tia Roebuck##imported-end##

“ Carmen and I truly wish we could be present today...but we want you to know that our hearts and spirits are with you on this bittersweet occasion. We have many fond memories of the times we spent together with Charles...enjoying his superb conversation and expert talent in music. Now he is singing and playing in that heavenly choir and we will all be together again one day in the future. You are in our prayers, Vernisha.

“ *Dear Mrs. Wood, Chuck and family. I'm so sorry to hear of Mr. Wood's passing. I remember fondly the times he came and played with his jazz ensemble at Jon Cassidy's house. It was fun listening to their talents and you could tell they all enjoyed what they were doing. You will all be in my thoughts and prayers. God Bless. “ Mrs. Wood,
My condolences to you and your children. I am a friend of Chuck's in the People of Praise. If you recall i used to see you when you were the Allergy RN @Howard University. Your Husband was a delightful man who i remember as always having a smile on his face. I thouroughly enjoyed his music when he played at John Cassady's house. God Bless you Mrs. Wood and may our Lord grant you grace and peace during this time.
