“ Dear Cherie,

I knew Cherie when I used to live at the Eleven and no word can express the sweetness and dedication she has been giving everyone, and she always does it with sweet voice and smile that lit up the building. She was very respectful and cheerful to everyone. Besides she is one of a person I knew very organized and professional.

As I am living overseas, whenever I return she used to give me all my mail and items delivered in my absence and she always amazes me how she was doing her job very meticulously. It was with shock I heard her passing.

DEAR CHERIE MAY GOD REST YOU BEAUTIFUL SOUL IN PEACE!!!

I am overseas not in the US and I wish her family my deepest condolence and May God give you all his comfort in this difficult time.

“ Cherie was a beautiful soul, a true angel. She was a friend, and like a family to us. Ever since we met her at the Eleven condominium, she was glowing with peace and kindness, always patient and helpful, but confident and strong when strength was needed. She was always there to help and support us. Cherie will be cherished in our memories forever.

May she rest in peace.

Our deepest condolences to Cherie's mom and family.
