“ Chester, was an amazing man. His love for God, Church and his family, was like no other. Chester had many different titles, but his favorite was husband and father. Chester and I would spend countless, hours at work talking about, God, family and countless other things. Chester was witty, funny and enjoyed a good laugh. My friend it was an honor and privilege to be, in your presence and call you my friend. Fly high, Chester. My deepest sympathy and condolences to your family and friends. Sincerely, Mrs. Dee.
