“ Good evening family, I would like to send my cousins, Shauna, Shemeca, and Chrissy my deepest condolences in the season of losing their mother. I know that this loss runs deep and I also know that God is still in the healing of our hearts. This time is rough for us all, but remember the good times and happy memories that you shared with your mother. She has her wings now and can fly like a bird without pain and sorrow. She's with our grandparents, Uncle Eddie, Aunt Harnetha, my daddy and her other siblings. This is a road that we all must travel, but just think about it like this. She made it to the finish line before you/us. I pray for our family daily and I believe that it starts with each individual. I love you Aunt Christine and I will see you later. Not goodbye. Love Deborah
