Christine Kimbrough
~A Celebration of Life~

Christine P. Kimbrough was born on July 17, 1945 in Gordonsville, Virginia. She grew up in Louisa County and was raised by her grandmother.

Christine attended Louisa County public schools and graduated from A.G. Richardson High School where she met Laurence Slaughter. They were married in Gordonsville, Virginia. From this union Cheri Denise Marsh and Wanda Michelle Battle were born. After relocating to Maryland, she earned a degree in Accounting from the University of the District of Columbia.

Christine was a phenomenal mother to her daughters, three grandsons and great-grandson. Throughout her life, she worked hard as a single mother to care and provide for her family. She always showed her love for her family, friends and many other children who affectionately called her Ma. Christine had a strong work ethic and retired as an Accountant from USA Today Newspaper in Arlington, Virginia.

She loved her family and friends dearly. She was passionate about education and dedicated her life to helping children. She always stressed the importance of education, and loved providing them with sound advice and encouragement. She loved gospel music, watching comedies, Joel Olsten and the Ellen Show. She was a compassionate and caring person to all that knew her.

Christine accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized in Gordonsville, Virginia. She later joined Rehoboth Baptist Church in Washington, D.C. then became a member of Antioch Baptist Church in Upper Marlboro, MD where she served on the Deaconess Ministry.

On December 6, 2023, Christine Kimbrough was called to her home prepared in heaven and is now with her daughter Cheri among the angels. “Mrs Kimbraugh was such a special person to me. I was her therapist on many different occurrences. We became friends right away and would talk and talk and talk. She was always a warrior pushing herself and I would have to hold her back sometimes. We would share family pictures and whatever TV shows we were watching and give recommendations. I am so blessed that she was part of my life she was a true inspiration and will miss her. Marie Traylor
