“ I am just finding out about the passing of my former coworker, Chris Jones. I met him when I began working at Skyline Elementary in 2005. He was always a very ambitious man, who was determined to make a name for himself with his hard work in our close-knot school. He will be missed.

“ To the family of Chris, I am so sorry for your loss. I met Chris a few years ago in Marlton. I live and worked in the neighborhood and we instantly clicked. He had the most contagious personality and a great sense of humour. Everyone adored him. I remember when he would work at Rite Aid/Walgreens on a holiday, he would always ask what I was cooking and me or my daughter would make sure he got a plate. He will definitely be missed by many. I pray that you are given strength and blessings to get through this tough time and cherish your memories. God Bless you all. Shannon Brown

“ To the Family of Mr. Christopher Patrick Jones:
I met Chris as a Rite Aid/Walgreen's in Marlton. My husband and I loved to talk to Chris whenever we were in the store. I also met Chris as a substitute teacher at his school. He was always kind, patient, caring, and funny. We would laugh and talk at the store counter, and have a big laugh or two.
I was devastated when I shopped at the store yesterday and saw his picture and obituary on the counter. My heart sank, and I was sad and wanted to cry. He touched my laugh with his love of life and laughter, great customer service, and always willing to help us shop. Please be assured that we are praying for you that God will heal your hearts. I have children his age and older and pray that God gives you strength on a daily basis, in Jesus' name.
Please contact us if you need anything at all.

“ My condolences to the family of Chris Jones. We worked together in Rite Aid in Clinton and Walgreen's in Upper Marlboro. Chris was always helpful, he knew where everything was in the store. We would always talk and laugh. I'm really going to miss him. He was my co worker first then became my best male friend. Now, he can keep a smile upon everyone face in heaven with his jokes.

“ My family truly miss hearing Mr. Jones' voice ring through our home on weekday mornings, wishing us a "Good Morning!!!" We were in shock and devastated upon hearing the sad news and I felt like not only did my son lose a teacher, but that I lost a friend; however, we know God had other plans! I'm just so glad that my child was able to experience such a wonderful, dedicated, committed, patient and understanding teacher, such as Mr. Jones and I always made it a point to tell him just how much appreciated and loved he was. He will be sorely missed & we will continue to pray for the family!

“ Chris and I spent so much time together in my office at Skyline. I remember not to long ago my husband and I walked in Rite Aide late and I did not see Chris buy he saw me. Chris yelled my name "Ms Matthews" so loud he scared me and the other customers in the store. Then everyone started to laugh. We really lost a good person. He will truly be missed. I am sure he will have my mom cracking up, up there. They use to joke alot when she would visit the school.

Love You Chris
Ms. Matthews
