“ I'm so sorry I was not there when Mrs Luter transitioned and for her homegoing service. She was like family to me. She and my mom were best of friends before my mom passed in 2004. RIH until we meet bargain. Love - Judy Powell Forrest.

“ A sister-friend has gone home to a place of comfort. My prayers and thoughts are with the family as they experience the adjustment of this void in their hearts but know this He has never made a mistake. Remember my girl's cooking and her contagious smile and be thankful for the time she was on loan for us to share. Her earnest desire is to see all of us saved. She truly planted during her time here.
