“ Susan Brooks and Family,

A prayer of deepest sympathy to my friend Susan and her family. Lord, the loved ones gone from us we trust now to Your keeping. Bring them home at last to You, wake them from their sleeping. Soothe them with Your tenderness. Touch them with Your grace. Take them from this world to find a better, brighter place. Care for them like children, Lord, and let them always be safe within Your gentle heart for all eternity.

I know you loved them very much. You'll find your peace somehow in knowing you will meet again although you're parted now. May your faith sustain you and may the love and prayers of those who care comfort you.

*With heartfelt sympathy,
Mr. & Mrs. Walter L. Austin (Lucy)*

“ I' am so sadden of the lost of my Aunt Rudene and her Husband Vincent. My condolences goes out to our family and I know that both will be missed by everyone. I say to her children my 1st Cousins Laverne, Carol, Sue and Teresa, "Stay Strong, Keep the Faith and Be There For Each Other" and Remember that the Earp's and Williams Families is Standing By With So Much Love to Share in Time of Need. I Love you Cousins. Remember All The Great Times That You Shared with Your Mother and Vincent and the "Memories" will Always Bring Smiles to Your Faces.

“ To the Family of Mrs. Clara Proctor:
Mrs. Clara will be missed by her kindness, love, presence, and of course her good cooking and baking. May the Lord continue to strengthen each and everyone of you and keep you all in his care. Sincerely,
Patti Baker Evans (sister of Frankie and Linda)
