

Clatis C. Crawford

May 4, 1924 - January 9, 2006

Clatis C. Crawford was born on May 4, 1924, in Anderson, South Carolina. She was one of five children born to the late John and Hattie Carter. She departed this life early on Monday, January 9 at Fort Washington Hospital in Fort Washington, Maryland.

She received her formal education in South Carolina public schools. On December 3, 1943, she married her childhood friend , the late Thomas P. Crawford, affectionately known as "T". From this union four sons, John, the late Charles, Gregory and Richard Crawford, were born.

Clatis moved to Washington, D. C. during World War II and worked at the Washington Navy Yard. She also worked as a domestic and as a care giver for the elderly for a number of years before retiring in 1989.

Clatis accepted Christ as her personal Savior at an early age. She joined her husband at Meridian Hill Baptist Church in the early sixties. She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother and friend. She was so revered by her family that two of her nieces were named after her. She had a passion for cooking huge meals for her family on Sundays and holidays alongside her late husband. She had a "green thumb" and loved plants and animals.

In 1999, she move from Washington, D. C. to Woodside Village, a senior citizen community in Ft. Washington, MD. since September 2004, she's lived at the Birchwood City Assisted Living Home where she made new friends and participated in a variety of activities.

She leaves to cherish her memory three sons, John Crawford of Oxon Hill, MD, Gregory Crawford of Fort Washington, MD and Richard Crawford of Washington, DC; one sister, Georgia Mae McCullum of Anderson, SC; one sister-in-law, Magdalene Latimer; ten grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, three daughters-in-law and a host of other loving relatives and friends.
