“ Diana Johnson of Byram, Mississippi

*Dear Big Brother Claudis,
You will be missed. In my younger days I always treasured the times you would come back home to Mississippi for a visit. Those were truly some great days. In 1987 my husband & I made a trip to Washington, DC to visit you & your family. I remember enjoying you giving us a tour of the Capital City. Then life brought us closer to you when we moved to Dover, Delaware in 1990. The times you would visit our home in Delaware were very memorable. Many times you would prepare dinner for us in our kitchen. We always enjoyed your visits as well as the times we would visit your home. Thanks for being a great Big Brother. You will be truly missed.
Your Little Sister,
Diana Johnson*

“ A letter to my Father,

Dad I remember when you and I would talk in person and over the phone regarding the family legacy, politics, sports, my grandparents, and even systemic racism that was prevalent (when you were a child) which still exist today. I would also reflect back to my childhood while speaking to you, how you enjoyed dressing in suits, driving nice cars, hunting for small game (squirrels and rabbits) and bringing them home in a brown burlap sack for us to have for dinner, (I will never forget the taste and smell of the rabbit mom cooked) while we were growing up in Georgia. I also remember going to Mississippi to visit family and seeing the farm animals, and the house you and your siblings grew up in.

Dad I also remember throughout the conversations we would have, I would ask certain questions regarding the family , politics, or anything that would catch my attention throughout the conversation and you would say, Junior! "YOU GOT ME CRAWLING UP THE TREE BACKWARDS"! I would look at you and thought to myself, (he doesn't want to answer the question) or he's evading the question. Well Dad, throughout my years and past experiences in my life while (listening to different health experts, scientists, healthcare providers, genetic engineers, family and friends. I now understand what your favorite cliché means and I guess the current world population is saying about the corona virus pandemic, "YOU GOT ME CRAWLING UP THE TREE BACKWARDS"! (There are somethings that can not be answered at this time or any other time). In short Dad, I will miss those conversations we once had. Love Claudis A. Williams Jr.

Listening to the different public health experts, scientists, health care providers, genetic engineers, family, and friends. I now understand and guess everyone effected by this coronavirus pandemic are saying "YOU GOT ME CRAWLING UP THE TREE BACKWARDS" (There are somethings in life, that cannot be answered at this time or any other time). Dad I will miss those conversations we once had. Love, Claudis A. Williams Jr.

“ To My Dear Father in law,
Thank you for so graciously excepting my children and I into your family. You have always been a great father-in-law to me and an exceptional grandfather to my children. You have always fill so many voids in our lives and we are forever thankful. I thank God for allowing you in our lives for the times that we did share. I will truly miss our special visits that we shared, we had so much fun spending time with you. I will forever hold those loving memories of you.

“ Uncle Claudis was my grandmother Clara's brother and I didn't get to see him very often. My last memory was at my grandmothers funeral in Mississippi in 2010. To see the siblings together always warmed my heart. We will deeply miss you! May you rest in the Lords arms.

“ Grandpa Claudis, I will always remember your smile, and how you shared your love with me and your great-grandchildren (LaTia and Tre). I will remember your kind words, and big hugs you would share when ever I was around you. I wish I could have spent more time getting to know you, and you knowing me and my brother (Rashad). I will always carry you in my heart. And though I may not be there to see you one last time, I will embrace forever your love, and the memories that we shared together. I love you! “ Memories of my Brother
How well I do remember
All the special times we had
As we where raised side by side.
Sharing good times and bad.
Sometimes we would disagree.
But always makeup in the end.
We became best of friends
All of these years you were the best.
Then you heard the voice of Jesus.
Greatly calling from on high.
He was holding out his arms.
But I could not say "goodbye"
so I said "see yea later dear brother.
