“ I got a Morgan newsletter and was surprised to see Clem's notice of death. Our senior year at Morgan we were mentors to freshmen. Clem and Celest shared an adjoining room with me and Phyliss Bell. I knew Celestine had gone on, but I heard nothing about Clem until this notice. I went to a 50th reunion at Morgan, but left when it starting raining at the football game. I had to preach on Sunday at my church. so I knew I wouldn't be staying over for Sunday activities at Morgan.

“ I was hungry and you fed me; poor and you loved me...as a student of Ms. Carr at Walbrook High School, I can attest to her genuine insight and love towards the unfortunate. She made sure upon graduation that I receive a one-time blessing of $400 from the NOW. She was patient and kind and a phenomenal teacher. She had an uncanny way of saying 'won' or 'one' and a calm spirit. May her family find solace in knowing she did not waste the gifts God gave her.
