“ I was deeply saddened to hear of your Dad's passing. I met Cliff in 1970 when he worked in Talladega, AL. I was then, and have continued to be, inspired by his knowledge, vision, and drive. I pray that your grieving will come to be replaced by a pride and happiness in knowing that he helped many many people. I am so happy that he gave his life to Christ; that gave him peace in his last days here and I hope it gives you the same in the future.##imported-begin##Winona Jacobs##imported-end##

“ Dear Herron Family

My name is Dennis S. Murray Sr, and I have worked and appreciated Cliff for years. I love his way of doing business and his kind words that he shared with me while he was working at USDA and thereafter.

He always believed in me and shared his knowledge with me and those that would listen. and alot of people listened.

As I type this note I am looking at a picture/map that he gave me during my time at USDA. The Southern Black Belt

I am so happen that I had a change to work, laugh, enjoy this man. He is a true solider and I will always love and appreciate what he has taught me.

Thank you GOD for this man. When you get to heaven look up my father Cliff. William Brown

You can heard me, because your spirit lives on.

Your friend and partner for the fight of our families, communities, and childern.

Rest My Friend

“ Debbie and Jeffrey,

I was saddened to hear of of your Dad's passing! I met Cliff as a consultant, nearly 20 years ago, while working with and for he and other colleagues at the Department of Agriculture. I came to know and count him as a friend and a brother in the Lord.

I pray that God will extend His comfort to both of you at this time and that He will sustain you in the days ahead.

God Bless You and every member of your family!##imported-begin##Bernard E. Robinson##imported-end##

“ In memory of our very dear classmate, Clifford Herron, the Dunbar Class of 1961 offers its most sincere sympathy.

"God saw that he was getting restless and tired. So He did what He thought best. He came and stood beside him and whispered come and rest.

We love him and will always miss him until we meet again."
