“ This is Kenneth McDonald, I'm just now finding out about Boo's passing (4/8/2014) as I connected with Keith through face book. I can't express how sorry I am, I'm shocked by this news. Boo, Keith and I were best friends and band mates in high school and for years afterwards. Boo was one of the nicest brothers I have ever met. Funny as heck and of course an outstanding drummer back in the day. He was a fantastic husband and father. Rest in peace my old dear friend

*Boo we will miss you but you know the greatest gift you have given the world is joy to love and respect each other. Continue to love and protect this world for the world doesn't belong to us -- it belongs to Jesus Christ our Lord which strengthens us. Thank you Disco Ced and Block for being the antiquesence of life. The agitators of life. The party hard love beings at Takoma Rec and Coolidge. The realistic light of family unity and keep the family together concept! Much respect.

“ My Deepest Sympathy to The Busey Family for your loss. I'll often "flash-back" to 1976 when I first heard the "Busey Brothers Band" and I remember how proud I was to be in the same class room at Paul Jr High School with Boo, the band was good , his basketball jump shot was suspect, but most of all he was a "Good Son, Good Father, Good Brother , and a Good Friend. My Sincere Sympathy Gerald Sazon & Family

“ I still can't believe that Boo is gone. I went to see him in the hospital and talked to him and rubbed his hand and told him I would see him later. Boo will be remembered by his big bubbly smile and laugh. Also back in the day when they played at school "The Busey Brothers". Remember Green Egss and Ham, lol. We had fun from 3rd grade to high school and even after school, we hung out. We never got the chance to watch the Redksins together but I know Boo will be in heaven cheering the Redksins on. Keith words cannot express how you must be feeling but remember that God needed Boo now. He is in a better place now and will watch over his family from afar and will guide you even when you don't think so. Love always and RIP my friend Boo.

“ Clifton, I will always remember your smile, laugh, and your sense of humor. You were ALWAYS there when Ericka needed you. She will always be “daddy’s little girl”. She loves you so much! Although you are not here in flesh, I know that you are an angel that will continue to guide Ericka. I know that Niah and Eris will miss their granddaddy, but they will always remember your smile and laughter. They so love their granddaddy. I want to let you know that your phone calls to Ma on her birthday and mother’s day, always warmed my heart. You have moved on to a better place now, and I will truly miss you, but I know that your spirit will always be here. Love you!
