“ The Robinson Family (Joseph, Patty, Dianne, and Jacqueline) would like extend our condolences to all individuals connected with the Cliff "PIG" Fautroy Family. We first met PIG back in the 60's when he was active playing football, attending his family reunion, his sister's block parties, and the annual Southeast Reunion. RIP Cliff, we share a lot of memories in your travels between DC and Philly.

“ We will miss our cousin Clifton for all those time you came and visited my mother "B. Ann Fautroy" and us we were always happy to see you. Those were the good old days. I was happy to hear that you gave your life to God, what a awesome thing to do. Now to our family he doesn't have to suffer anymore he can rest now. May God Bless you until we meet again.

Love Always Your cousin Monica I. Coleman-Robertson

“Cliff, I was always so happy when you came in town and stayed at grandma's house. Aunt Orilee, would never tell me when you were coming and keep it as a surprise. Then, she would wake me up and say "Cliff came home last night. He's down in the basement", and I'd jump out of bed and run downstairs and wake you up to see you. You always knew how to make it fun for me. I'll never forget it! I love you and will miss you!

“When I was little my Uncle Cliffy used to bite us all the time really hard. I used to be scared of him. I'll miss him so much but not those bites. Give my Grandma Orilee, Aunt Nana, Cousin Anthony, Cousin Coochie, Cousin Mike and Cousin Maurice a big hug and a kiss for me (no biting Uncle). Love and miss you already. Love, Your Niece, Carleen
