“ My deepest sympathy and warmth to your family. Mr. Chisley was a man of love. He never failed to keep us laughing. I will remember his good advice in our hours long phone conversations, how he and my son would argue over whose chair was who's battle everyday, always joking me on my cooking skills (or lack of), his infectious laugh. Everything.

Mr. Chis, thank you for the book. I will hold and value it's words even more now. Honovi says i never got to prove to you what a great "chef" I am. lol Hopefully in your guardian angel duties you can look over him too. We are going to miss you but as they say this world is temporary, Heaven lasts forever so i will see you again. With love- Tiffany and Honovi (or as you say) "Navi"

“ I remember when he used to come into the store (liquor) to play his numbers and he used to call me and ask me to play them for him.. Mr. Chisley was more than friend he was like a grandfather to me and I am going to miss him dearly. R.I.P mr. Chisley you would not be forgotten.

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. During this time, may you be comforted by the promise found at Revelation 21:4: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more. Neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore, the former things have passed away."
