“ I met Courtney while we were teaching together at NAPS. She always had a cheery way about her and the biggest smile. I often had to walk my students through her classroom to get to mine and her children were always engaged and having fun. My heart goes out to her whole family and especially her sons.

“ We the Reid Temple Bible College Family will sorely miss Courtney. Two days before she went home to be with the Lord, she called me while she was in ICU. She explained her situation and said, I'm also calling to inform you that I cannot make our next mtg. Both Courtney and I laughed when I said, you are calling me from ICU and thinking about the Bible College. She said, I needed that laugh.

Courtney taught the first Social Media class and her students were impressed with her knowledge. She took them under her wings and equipped them for their areas of service.

Courtney had great marketing ideas for the Bible College and we were looking forward to her becoming RTBC's Chief of Marketing and Communications. We plan to move forward with her ideas as she imparted them into her students.

Our hearts are sadden, but we know God knows best. We are praying for the family during this time and want Tennelle, her sons and Tomie to know we are here for them.

We love you Courtney, but we know God loves you best.

“ When I think of Courtney, I think of love, caring, and commitment. She was always willing to lend a hand. She loved her family. She looked out for anyone’s children and I will always be especially grateful for how she supported mine. Blessings to the Campbell family. Curt, Nolan, Colin and I are here if needed.

“ Courtney and I connected when I was Jalani’s teacher and I loved her children and loved they way she loved them. She and I later became colleagues and it was Courtney who gave me to courage to step out on faith and start my business. She later designed my logo which before and now- every time I see it, I think of Courtney’s talent and heart ❤️. Trusting that God will gift Tenille, Grandma Tomi, and the boys with special visits from her for the rest of their days.

“ My sincerest condolences to you all. May God give you comfort and peace during this time. I've know Courtney from a baby and used to spend weekends with her and her mother when she was a child, and throughout the years, we've shared many milestone moments. She will certainly be missed. I love you all and am continuing in prayer for your strength. Cousin Altowese McLendon

May the Lord bless you and keep you in this time of sorrow, reminding you of treasured memories, and the gift of shared love. May he inspire you with the reflection of heaven in earth, from the seeds and flowers, to the mountains and springs. And may you feel the Lord with you, walking besides you in the loneliness, taking your hand in the hardest times and carrying you through the waters of grief. May you be safe and treasured in his hand.

Sending prayers to the family.

Our heartfelt prayers and intercession on behalf of my wonderful nephew and his two awesome sons, (Jalani and Collin). Courtney, (a lot like her mother, Ms. Jackson) was a virtuous woman, not just simply known for her good works but for her good heart! Though she will be missed, Courtney is not lost for she indeed has found an eternal resting place in the Arms of the Almighty GOD! We love you family 🙏
