“ *Lisa,
Curtis will truly be missed. He was a very special man. I am so sad right now. He had such a loving spirit and he always went out of his way to help anyone in need. Anyone that knew him, knew he was a man of God. A true deciple of Christ. I am in constant prayer for you and your entire family. If you need anything, please don't hesitate to reach out.##imported-begin##Angela Berry##imported-end##*

“ My thoughts and prayers are with through this time and will continue to be with you. May you always cherish the time you had with Curtis.

*"may the road rise to meet you may the wind be always at your back may the sun shine to warm your face the rains fall soft upon your field and until we meet again may God hold you in the palm of His hand"##imported-

“ Lisa and the Kelly Family:

I will always remember Deacon Kelly's warm smile and kind heart. He could set your soul on fire when he sang and I will always remember him singing when I renewed my wedding vows.

God has chosen a man that will go on the battle field and work.

Deepest sympathy.

“ To Lisa and the Kelly family,

Curtis was a friend to many, but remember, to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Curtis never complain and We know the Lord has welcome him home.

“ Curtis will be missed by all. He was a friend to many. He was blessed with a voice for all to hear. We enjoyed having him as part of our groups. We know that God is too wise to make a mistake. Remember that Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal.

“ Curtis was such a funny and entertaining Cowboy fan to be around as well as the 'best dressed' Deacon. He could hook a suit and tie up. We will miss him.##imported-begin##Claudette & Ralph Mills##imported-end##
