

Curtis Smith

June 13, 1952 - September 16, 2006

Curtis Smith was born on June 13, 1952 in Washington, D. C. He was the son of Clarence Smith, Sr. and Marie Wilkins. On Saturday, September 16, 2006 at 21:00 hours he said his goodbyes and departed this earth.

Mr. Smith was a veteran of the United States Marine Corps. He enlisted in the Marines in 1970 and was honorably discharged in 1974.

Curtis was devoted to his career. He worked in HVAC service for over twenty years as a master technician where he trained many future servicemen. He was well respected and he was praised for his skills and work ethic.

He then reached another level as a 1st class MD engineer working in high demand at Walter Reed and Bolling AFB.

Curtis was known for being an independent and a "straight-up" guy. He was a great conversationalist, very charming, and took pleasure in the simple things in life.

He leaves to cherish his memory mother, Marie Viola Wilkins; sisters, brothers, three daughters, Danitra Dorsey-Daniels, Yolanda Christine Smith and Tiffany Marie Dorsey; five granddaughters, son-in-law, brother-in-law, sisters-in-law and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

To send a lasting tribute or condolences to the Smith family, please sign the Online Guestbook below. Click "Sign Guestbook".

Tribute Wall

“ Curtis Smith

October 23, 2023 at 08:15 AM

“ I can be sure from all of the beautiful memories shared with me that it is my loss I never got to know Curtis. I do know that, as a Smith, he was strong, caring, and an inspiration to those whose lives he touched. Curtis has left a lasting legacy. May his memory be for a blessing.##imported-begin##Ben##imported-end##

October 04, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ Everytime my uncle and I saw each other, he would always have this big smile on his face and he would always give me a hug... and he LOVED to talk.: This is what I would miss most about my uncle, Curtis. He was such a kind and generous man who would do anything to help a person out. And although he's in a better place, he's is irreplaceable and I will miss him dearly.##imported-begin##Michelle Smith##imported-end##

October 02, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ To my friend that I knew, We talked about the pain he was in and now I know he's in a better place today. I will miss him with lost of a lot love, but will always remember the love we had. My his family find great comfort in knowing that he's okay. Knowing that the lord is by his side. My God Bless his family. With love Denise

With Love,
Denise Asiamah & Daughter Jennifer Chase##imported-begin##Denise Asiamah##imported-end##

September 22, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ To the smith family CURTIS WAS ONE OF THE GOOD GOOD GUYS. I'm really going to miss him the last time we talked. we had a very up lifting conversation about life. I just want you all to know how much he will be missed in all of our hearts. I've known smitty for thirty years and he has never changed always the same out spoken and always ready to lend a ear or hand. SORRY FOR YOUR LOST AND MAY GOD BLESS AND KEEP YOU ALL IN GOOD SPIRITS. DEBBIE TWIN##imported-begin##Mrs. Deborah Randolph##imported-end##

September 22, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ For our friend Curt, who is now resting with the Lord...

"IF TEARS COULD BUILD A STAIRWAY"

If tears could build a stairway and memories a lane, we would walk right up to Heaven and bring you back again. No farewell words were spoken, No time to say "Goodbye". You were gone before we knew it and only God knows why. Our hearts still aches with sadness, and secret tears still flow. What it meant to love you - We all surley know. But now we know you want us to mourn for you no more. To remember all the happy times, life still has much in store. Since you'll never be forgotten, We pledge to you today. A hollowed place within our hearts is where you'll always stay.

We will miss you Curt, but you are in Greater company now! May God continue to Bless the family in their time of lost.

Love, Smith

Asiamah, White

Families##imported-begin##Jerrie LoveSmith##imported-end##

September 22, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ He was an good uncle, and a good man. i miss him very much. i just can't belive he is gone. my other uncle is acting strange cause he loose a brother that was close to him##imported-begin##christopher E. hall##imported-end##

September 22, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ It's still hard to realize that Uncle Curtis is gone. He was among the best people you could ever know. He was trustworthy and would always lend a hand when you were in need of one. I remember back in 9th grade; I didn't have a ride to school, so he took me and when I did not have enough money for the bus, he gave me enough for a cab. Uncle Curtis was always positive and greeted you with a smile. Among all of my uncles; Curtis was the best. And even today... he still is.##imported-begin##Angela G. Smith##imported-end##

September 22, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ To the Smith Family may the Lord watch over you in your time of greivement. You had my deepest sympathy. With love always and I will keep you in my prays.##imported-begin##Gwendolyn Watson##imported-end##

September 21, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ I am Clarence Smith, jr. the older brother, Curtis was eleven months under me. He was one of the best. He gave me the name "Big Bull" I have no idea where he got that from, but I answered anyway. He loved his work and enjoyed the little time he had left. He had a sense of humor to the very end. I will surely miss him. He can now rest in peace.##imported-begin##Clarence Smith, Jr.##imported-end##

September 21, 2006 at 12:00 AM