“ Condolences to family and friends of Mr.Norman. Death is an enemy that robs us of our precious relationships. In that sense it is also a thief. It was not a part of the Creator's original purpose. But, death and the sorrow that comes with it will be done away with. The Bible promises this in the last book, Revelation 21:3,4. It also promises a resurrection Acts 24:15We can rely on the Bible because it says God cannot lie Titus 1:2. I hope that thought is encouraging. Again, my sympathies.##imported-begin##Lena Bey##imported-end##

“ I was very sorry to hear that Darrell did not recover. I am unable to go to services today, but please express my condolences to his family. He was a very bright light at the House ? a congenial, energetic and helpful colleague and a good man. He sincerely appreciated even very small gestures of kindness: a few years ago I brought him some matchbooks from ?Darrell?s? restaurant in North Carolina where my family vacationed, and he was thrilled. I?ll miss him. Sincerely, Jim##imported-begin##Jim Caskey##imported-end##

“ I was truly saddened to hear of Darrell's passing. I knew him for many years working at the House of Representatives. Any time our paths crossed, I always received a great big smile and a kind word.

My deepest sympathy goes out to his immediate family and his family at the House. My prayer is that your hearts will be strengthened and encouraged by the many memories of Darrell's life well lived.##imported-begin##Mary Holt##imported-end##
