

Mr. Daryl Russell Wright

December 25, 1965 - July 23, 2025

Daryl Russell Wright

December 25, 1965—July 23, 2025

Born on Christmas Day to the late Clarence and Maudie Wright, Daryl was a proud native Washingtonian. He was educated in Prince George's County, Maryland, Public School System, graduating from DuVal High School. He also was a graduate of South Carolina State University (Class of 1988). For more than 50 years, he was a devoted member of Springfield Baptist Church.

Daryl was appointed to the Washington, DC Commission on Poverty and served on the boards of the Better Way Program Recovery Support Services and the HOPE Foundation Reentry Network.

For more than 30 years, Daryl built a career working across multiple sectors—including the arts, foster care, healthcare, mental health, and education financing. He was senior vice president for outreach at So Others Might Eat (SOME), using his powerful voice, dynamic personality and empathetic heart to serve, connect, and lead.

Daryl is survived by his beloved sister, Dr. Deidra Hill, nieces Nicole, Natalie, Nola, and Narissa Hill, his cherished Godson, Hassan Pye, God-granddaughter, Ava, and a host of family and friends.
